but the race is hot

Zurich/Switzerland, Oct. 14, 2008—People worldwide are now voting in the first phase of the New7Wonders of Nature campaign. In less than three months, each country will be represented by only one national nominee—the people's choice.

Which natural treasure should represent Canada?

Rankings now have Dinosaur Provincial Park placed to be Canada's national representative in the global election to choose the Official New7Wonders of Nature.

Do the people of Canada want Dinosaur Provincial Park to represent the natural beauty of their country?

Current ranking of national nominees for Canada:

- #1 Dinosaur Provincial Park
- #2 Bay of Fundy
- #3 Gros Morne National Park
- #4 Rocher Perce
- #5 Long Point Sand Spit

This ranking can change at any time, according to the votes received.

The top-ranked national nominee on December 31, 2008 will represent Canada in the next phase of the New7Wonders of Nature campaign.

Vote now at www.new7wonders.com to help choose which Canadian national nominee will participate in the global election of the Official New7Wonders of Nature.
